KING PACIFIC LODGE
Est. 2000

KPL is hiring for the 2024 fishing season! Full-time seasonal positions available!

West Sport Fishing operates King Pacific Lodge (KPL), a remote, luxury sport fishing lodge located on the along the shoreline of the Great Bear Rainforest, within the territory of the Heiltsuk people. We offer an unparalleled experience for anglers and nature enthusiasts in one of the most pristine wilderness settings. Our lodge provides an escape from the ordinary, where guests can enjoy the stunning beauty of the coast, incredible fishing opportunities, and exceptional hospitality.

We are currently seeking applicants for seasonal positions on site at KPL. The start date will be in early June, and our crew stay on site at the lodge location until early September. KPL provides safe, clean, and comfortable staff accommodation. Our dedicated crew chef serves quality meals. Transportation to and from the lodge location is provided.

The ideal candidates will be experienced team players, safety-oriented, have exceptional interpersonal skills, and be mindful of cleanliness and organization. Successful applicants will be punctual, friendly, and open to new experiences! For all positions it is required to be physically fit – you must be able to lift 50 lbs, be able to stoop and bend, and to walk up and down stairs. Most positions required a ten hour shift each day, all of which encompass physical work. Available positions include fishing guides, dockhands, housekeepers, servers, and kitchen positions. We also will have some part-time fishing guide positions available. Hours of work and duties will vary by position. Please see the required certifications listed below:
